Dear Harold,

I am so sorry the weeks have rolled by without a follow-up by me to our meeting on the King murder. Here now is what I suggest I send to Sterling Lord. (There will of course be a covering letter, and I'll phone as well so that he knows the background.)

Have I got it right, and are you happy with this bald summary - deliberately made very simple for the eye of an editor with little initial time to spare?

Best,

Tony
